

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:

- Your writing must be 350 words or less.
- There is NO fee or purchase requirement to submit nor is there a fee or purchase requirement if your work is accepted.
- You must keep the subject within a Biblical framework centered around themes of Christian life.
- The writing can be a past work you've written as long as you own the sole copyright.
- Devotional must meet the publishing standards of Tall Pine Books, meaning it will be free from unnecessary vulgarity and themes unless part of a testimony or biblical teaching.
- Writing must not be a rebuke of other ministries or leaders, namely, the writing cannot correct specific leaders or churches.
- Your writing must not be divisive or intentionally controversial in nature.
- When your work is accepted, you will be notified. Your writing will be contained in the final printed book. You will be credited in the book as the author of the letter.
- Individual authors will not receive royalties for online sales.
- Copies of the book will be available to you at an author wholesale rate in bulk orders of 50 or more. Authors may resell these books at full retail price of $15.95.
- We have a strict submission limit of one submission per person.
- You, the author, are responsible for seeing to it that your submission is proofread for spelling and grammar.
- Do not include a formal greeting or signature (i.e. dear reader, sincerely yours, etc.)
- Author will maintain intellectual rights to their respective works, without digital royalties.